The Indian Polo Association.

Prior and down to 1891, each annual Tournament held in India few though they were, framed, not only its own rules for the conduct of the Tournament but also its own Polo laws; the only similarity about the various codes of the latter being their objective viz. the safety of the game and its welfare.

Most of these codes were badly worded badly arranged, vague and unsatisfactory. An exception was the code in force at Bombay, which at that time had a flourishing and influential Tournament.

The Inter-Regimental Tournament adopted the Bombay Code in the year 1888. This was a step in the right direction; but it occurred to some lovers of the game, to one of whom the Association is indebted for the present details for some interesting original documents connected with the formation of the Association, that, in order effectually to put an end to existing, and prevent future confusion in the laws of the game, and to place those laws on a firm satisfactory and enduring basis, the best, if not the only method, was the formation of a governing body to fulfil functions in relation to similar to those of the M. C. C towards cricket.

As there was not, at that time, any such body, the situation was, so to speak vacant, and the idea of forming an association to fill it, was circulated at the Inter-Regimental Tournament at Ambala in March 1891.

The idea caught; the representatives of 16 regiments pledged themselves to support it and it had also the support of Bombay.

An Honorary Secretary, H. S. Follett of the 7th Dragoon Guards, was appointed; preliminary Meetings were held at Simla and Ambala in September and October respectively of that year 1891 ; and in March 1892, the Indian Polo Association, as such, met for the first time, with its constitution, its Polo laws its rules for the regulation of Tournaments and for the height and measurement of ponies, drafted and moulded into a form very similar to that of to-day.

Certain changes have been made in the rules and laws adopted by the Association at the time of its formation. In point of number, these changes are comparatively few; but some of them are important and far reaching; and were introduced by reason of the necessity of keeping abreast of the development of the game following on its increasing popularity not in India only, but also in other parts of the world.

The fact that these important changes in the laws of the game have been introduced by the Association and accepted throughout India, is the strongest proof, if any were needed, of the necessity for the formation of the Association; for though, without it, these changes might have been introduced locally into this or that Tournament or Club, it would have been impossible to have procured their recognition by all Clubs, simultaneously, throughout India in one precise and similar form; and the result would have been that very confusion which the Association was designed to prevent.

The object of the founders of the Association aided, as from the commencement it has been, by the support of Players throughout India, has been achieved. As was originally hoped and intended, the Association is now, by virtue of the long continued and voluntary submission of all polo players in India to its jurisdiction the recognised supreme Authority in India over polo; it is the only authority so far as India is concerned which can amend, alter, vary, modify or annul the existing laws of the game, or frame new laws; and it is the final tribunal of appeal in all matters in difference or dispute concerning polo.

It has in fact become, as it was hoped it would become, and by the same mode of operation, the precise counterpart in relation to Polo in India, of the M. C. C. in relation to cricket throughout the world.

No better proof than this, if indeed proof were necessary, could be required of the service which has been rendered to polo by the formation of the association.

It survived the shock of 6 years' war being kept going by those interested in its preservation.

tion will be under the management of a committee of three who will be elected locally and known as the tournament committee (The Station Polo Committee, see para 1 Station Polo, would generally suffice, one of them acting as Hony. Secy.)

4. The duration of play, the number of ponies allowed to be played by teams in a tournament, and the constitution of competing teams, shall be decided locally provided that the maximum duration of play in any match does not exceed sixty minutes, all in.

5. No player or pony shall play for more than one team in any tournament.

Nature of tournament.

6. Tournaments can be played on :—

(a) The Knock-out system.

(b) The Pool System, each team meeting the other in turn :—

If played under (a) and the number of competing teams are not a power of 2 such as 4, 8, 16 etc., all byes to be in the first round. For instance 13 teams are competing, 3 are drawn as byes and the remainder play off leaving 8 to play in the second round.

7. The Honorary Secretary of a tournament shall obtain from the captain of each team before the commencement of a tournament a correct list of the ponies to be played in the tournament by his team (printed forms will be supplied by the Honorary Secretary Indian Polo Association for this purpose). He will also submit a list of the umpires whose services were utilised. These lists, together with a short description of the tournament will be forwarded to the Honorary Secretary Indian Polo Association, as soon as possible after the conclusion of the tournament.

Registration of ponies

8. No pony shall play in any tournament, held under Indian Polo Association rules, unless it has been registered in accordance with the rules of the Association, (see rules for the Registration of ponies.)

Disqualification of a team.

9. Any team knowingly playing a pony in a tournament that has not been registered in accordance with the rules shall be disqualified for that tournament.

10. All the players and ponies comprising a team entered for any tournament played under Indian Polo Association rules must collectively belong to some club which is affiliated to the Indian Polo Association.

Teams must belong to an institution which is a member of the I. P. A.

Membership for the purpose of playing in any particular event will not be accepted after the date of closing of the entries.

11. Each side is permitted to select an umpire, or if agreed to by both sides, one umpire will suffice. The person or persons selected must be approved by the tournament committee who shall ensure that those selected thoroughly understand their duties. Selections should be made in time to permit a study of these and other rules and regulations.

Umpires

12. One goal judge with one assistant for each goal shall be appointed

Goal judges and their duties

by the Tournament Committee. Their duties are :—

(a) To assist the umpire in deciding if a goal has been scored (see Field rule 8.)

(b) To assist the umpire in deciding if the ball has been hit over the back line by the side defending that line, (see field rule 11).

(c) When the ball crosses the inner edge of the back line the goal judge, who is generally in a better position to see than the Umpire, should raise his arm. This enables the Umpires to decide at once if the ball has gone behind the line.

(d) The goal judges must place themselves so that they can be certain if a ball goes between the goal posts. This is best done, when a shot at goal is made from an acute angle, by placing themselves directly behind the goal posts and the line of the ball.

(e) To place the ball for a hit out (see field rule 10.)

They shall be provided with a red flag which they will wave if a goal has been scored. They will continue to wave it until it is acknowledged by the scorer, time-keeper, or other official. If in doubt as to whether a goal has been scored or not the goal judge shall await the arrival of the umpire whose decision shall be final.

13. In important matches a Referee may be appointed by the Tournament Committee whose decision in the event of the umpires disagreeing shall be final. He should be thoroughly conversant with Tournament Polo and all rules and regulations.

Referee.

14. An official time-keeper and scorer shall be appointed by the Tournament Committee.

Time-keeper and scorer.

Helmet
or Lungi
Penalty 3.

15. In the case of player's Helmet or Lungi coming off during a game, the umpire will at once order the player either to pick it up or to go off the ground and get another. The game shall not be stopped unless the player disregards the umpire's orders.

All-India
Handicapping
Committee.

16. The I. P. A. All-India Handicapping Committee shall consist of:—

The Stewards.

The Sub-Stewards.

The Hon. Secy. I. P. A.

„ „ A. P. C.

„ „ Inter-Regimental Tournamental.

„ „ Indian Cavalry
Tournament.

„ „ Infantry „

and such additional members as the Stewards think fit.

This Committee is the final authority on the handicapping of players belonging to clubs which are members of the I. P. Association.

Any member of this Committee, who is present at a Tournament may note the play of any individual and submit recommendations for alterations of any handicaps to the Hon. Secy. I. P. A.

Such recommendations will be noted by him with a view to assisting the All-India Handicapping Committee when considering the handicaps of players for the following season.

17. For the assistance of clubs, desirous of organizing tournaments under the Handicapping System, a list of players with their handicaps is published annually in the Calendar, and Supplementary Lists will be published from time to time.

Publication of Handicaps.

These handicaps will hold good for the ensuing season, i. e. from 1st May to 30th April annually. The supplementary lists above mentioned will contain the approved handicaps of any players whose names do not appear in the Calendar.

The handicap of a player once published either in the Calendar or in a supplementary list will not be open to revision until the following polo season.

Method of Handi-
capping.

18. Handicaps of players will be arrived at as follows :—

(a) During December the Stewards will nominate a Select Committee to note the form of players in the undermentioned Tournaments:—

I. P. A. Championship.

Lahore Xmas.

Indian Cavalry.

Prince of Wales' Cup.

Infantry Tournament.

Inter-Regimental „

Subalterns „

After the last of the above Tournaments the Select Committee will forward to the Hon. Secy. I. P. A. a list of handicaps for the players in these Tournaments.

This list will be submitted to the I. P. A. All-India Handicapping Committee and when approved will be circulated to all members of the I. P. Association.

(b) On the basis of the above list Local Handicapping Committees, to be appointed by committees of local clubs, will handicap their players and submit their lists, through the sub-steward of their areas, to the Hon. Secy. I. P. A. to reach the Hon. Secy. by the 15th April annually.

These handicaps and no others will be published in the Calendar.

(c) Any players whose names are omitted from the Calendar may be handicapped at any time by their Local Handicapping Committee. These additional handicaps may be forwarded to the Hon. Secy. I. P. A. and will come into force from the date of approval.

The Hon. Secy. I. P. A. will notify members of the date of approval of such handicaps and include them in the Supplementary List to be published from time to time.

19. For calculating the handicap in tournaments of less than 8 chukkers, the following procedure will be observed.—

The total aggregate of one team shall be subtracted from the total of the other team and the resultant figure treated as follows :—

In a 6 chukker event 6-8 or $\frac{3}{4}$ of above resultant figure will give the correct handicap, fractions of a goal being ignored.

e. g. Total handicap of team A is 16

 " " " B is 9

The difference is 7.

$\frac{3}{4}$ of 7 is 5 and $\frac{1}{4}$ therefore B receives 5 goals from A.

In a 5 chukker tournament using the same example, $\frac{5}{8}$ of 7 is 4 and $\frac{3}{8}$, therefore B receives from A 4 goals.

In a 4 chukker event,

$\frac{1}{2}$ of 7 is $3\frac{1}{2}$ and therefore B receives 3 goals.

20. In handicap tournaments no substitute shall play whose handicap is higher than that of the player he replaces. In the event of the handicap of the substitute being lower than that of the player he is to replace, the team shall play on their original handicap.

Handicap of a substitute.

21. In all tournaments numbers will be worn by all players. These should be fastened to the players' back.

Number to be worn by players.

Question to be referred to
I. P. A.
Stewards.

22. Any question which may arise in the course of a tournament, and which is not provided for in these rules, shall be referred for decision to the Tournament Committee who may, if they think fit, refer the matter to the Stewards of the Indian Polo Association, whose decision shall be final.

GENERAL RULES.

(General) 1.—Only ponies may be played. Ponies.

All Clubs and Regiments shall undertake that no pony shall be permitted to play unless licensed by them as suitable and safe. It is the duty of the representative of the Club Committee where the match is being played to warn an unsuitable pony off the ground, and disqualify same from being played again during the game, match or tournament. All ponies must be registered in accordance with the Rules of the I. P. A. Failure to comply with this rule will entail disqualification of the team in that tournament. Penalty 8.

Players.

In Tournaments, if a player having taken part in the Tournament be for any reason unable to play, or if a bona-fide member of a team be unable through sickness or accident to take part in the earlier parts of the Tournament, he may with the consent of the Committee of the Club where the Tournament is held, be replaced by any player who by the Rules of the Tournament is qualified, provided the said player has not already competed in another team and that his handicap be not higher than that of the original player.

Substitute players in Tournaments.

No player or pony shall play for more than one team in any tournament.

Captain. (General) 5—The captain of each
Umpire. side shall nominate an Umpire, who must be approved by the Tournament Committee, unless it be mutually agreed to play with one instead of two, and his or their decision shall be Penalty 3. Disregarding the Umpire.

Captains shall have the sole right to discuss with the Umpire questions arising during the game and to enter protests with the Referee.

Goal Referee. In important matches Goal Referees should be appointed, each of whom shall give testimony to the Umpires, at the latter's request, in respect to (General) 7 (a)—The maximum duration of play in a match shall be 8 periods of $7\frac{1}{2}$ minutes each with intervals of three minutes after each period, no deduction being made for overtime.

Maximum duration of play.

In the event of matches under handicap conditions being played of shorter duration, handicaps shall be worked out pro rata, according to number of periods played, but no fraction of goals shall be taken into account.

Shorter duration.

for in General Rule 7 (b), shall be at the risk of the player.

Termination of period.

(b) The 7 first periods of play shall terminate as soon as the ball goes out of play after the expiration of the prescribed time, any excess of time in any of these periods due to the ball remaining in play being deducted from the succeeding period.

If the ball does not go out of play at the expiration of any period of $7\frac{1}{2}$ minutes the umpire may, at his discretion, stop the game, and on play being resumed after the usual interval, shall throw in the ball at the place where the game was stopped, towards the nearest side of the ground in a direction parallel to the two goal lines, and between the opposing ranks of players.

The umpire shall not stop the game when the ball is within 30 yards of either goal, unless it is unavoidable, and it is desirable that the game shall be stopped when the ball is in such a position that neither side shall be favoured thereby.

A bell shall be rung to signify to the players that the $7\frac{1}{2}$ minutes period has expired, and it shall be rung again when the ball next goes out of play, to signify the time for changing ponies.

Bell.

Changing
ponies.

When a bugle is used in place of a bell, the halt is sounded, at the end of the last period, except in the case of a tie when one G shall be sounded, the halt in this case being sounded when the winning goal is obtained. One G shall be sounded to signify to the players that the $7\frac{1}{2}$ minutes period has expired and one G shall again be sounded when the ball next goes out of play to signify the time for changing ponies. One G will again be sounded when the time allowed for the interval has expired. If the game has been started the G need not be sounded.

If a foul is given after the first bell or bugle the Umpire's whistle terminates the period and the penalty shall be exacted at the beginning of the next period.

Deduction of time in case of a foul.

When a foul is allowed by the Umpire the time shall be deducted from the period till the game starts again. The ball is dead till the Umpire says "Play."

Last period

(c). The last period shall terminate although the ball is still in play, at the first stroke of the final bell or bugle sounding first note of halt wherever the ball may be (except in case of a tie.)

Prolonga-tion in case of tie.

In case of a tie the last period shall be prolonged till the ball goes out of play or strikes the boards, and if still a tie after an interval of five minutes, the width of the goals shall be doubled (16 yds). Ends having been changed, the ball shall be started from the centre of the ground, and the game continued in periods of $7\frac{1}{2}$ minutes with the usual intervals, until one side obtains a goal which shall determine the match.

In the case of a penalty being incurred towards the end of a match, and there not being time to exact the penalty before the final bell rings or bugle sounds, one minute extra shall be allowed from the time the ball is hit or hit at in carrying out the penalty.

Prolongation in case of penalty.

This will be at the option of the side fouled.

(d). In the event of a game being stopped by darkness, weather, or for any cause which prevents a finish the same day, it shall be resumed at the point at which it stopped, as to score, period and position of the ball, at the earliest convenient time.

of players, no player to stand within 5 yards of the side line. There must be no delay whatsoever or any consideration for absent players, but the Umpire must give reasonable time for both sides to form up. If they do not form up then he shall throw the ball into play.

(Field) 13.—On play being resumed after an interval, the ball shall be thrown in as laid down in Field Rule 12, or as laid down in Field Rule 10, if it was hit behind at the end of the previous period.

Ball damaged.
&c.

(Field) 14.—If the ball be damaged or trodden into the ground, the Umpire shall, at his discretion, stop the game and throw in a new ball as near as possible to where the ball was when the whistle sounded, towards the nearest side of the ground, in a direction parallel to the two goal lines and between the opposing ranks of players.

N. B.—It is desirable that the game should be stopped and the ball changed when the damaged ball is in such a position that neither side is favoured thereby.

(Field) 15.—A player may not carry the ball. In the event of the ball lodging upon or against a player or pony, it must be immediately dropped on the ground.

Carrying

Penalty 2

(Field) 16.—A player may ride out an antagonist, or interpose his pony before his antagonist, so as to prevent the latter reaching the ball, but he may not cross another player in possession of the ball except at such a distance that the said player shall not be compelled to check his pony to avoid a collision (see examples 2, 4 and 5).

(Last striker.)

The last striker is in possession; provided that no other player can, without causing the striker to check his pony to avoid a collision, get on the line of the ball in front of him. Under these circumstances the last striker may not ride into the adversary from behind, but must, if necessary, take the ball on the near side of his own pony, (see examples 2 and 3).

No player shall be deemed to be in possession of the ball by reason of his being the last striker, if he shall have deviated from pursuing the exact course of the ball (see example 1).

(b) Any player who rides to meet the ball on the exact line of its course is in possession rather than any other player riding at an angle from any direction (see example 4.)

Penalty 1 (a)—If in the opinion of the Umpire a player commits a dangerous foul in order to save a goal, the side fouled shall be allowed a goal. Ends shall be changed and the game restarted from the centre of the ground.

General
Rule 1.

Field
Rule 1.

(If for infringement of Field Rule 3, after removal of offence, the pony may be allowed to play provided the game is not delayed).

Field
Rule 3.

EXAMPLE I.

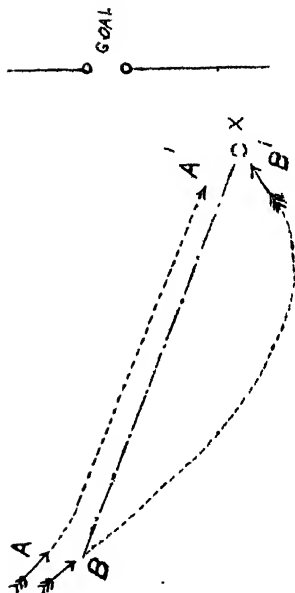

Field Rule 16 (a)—Ball in possession of line follower.

B, on the ball, hits to X, and being on a fast tearing pony swings round in a semi-circle. A, on a good polo pony, is following the line of the ball.

At A' B' a collision is imminent.

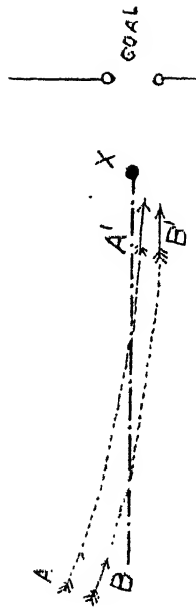

Although B hit the ball last, he loses possession, because A has ridden on a line closer and more nearly parallel to the line on which the ball has been travelling.

A is entitled to possession of the ball, and must be given way to.

EXAMPLE II.

Field Rule { 16.—Crossing.
16 (a)—Possession of ball.

B hits the ball to X.

A rides him off at A' B'.

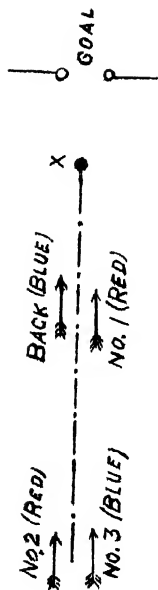

A is entitled to possession.

EXAMPLE III.

Field Rule 16 (a)—Possession of ball.

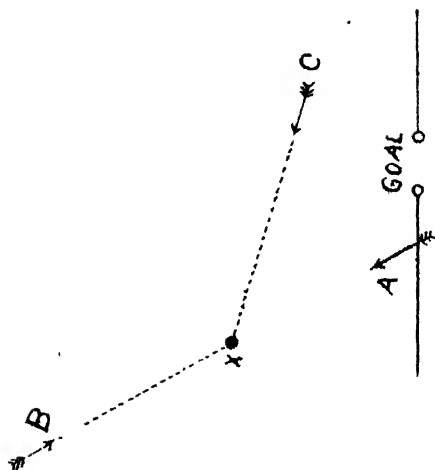

This represents the position of four players at the moment that No. 2 (red) hits to X.

No. 2 (red) loses possession of the ball, which passes to the back (blue) provided, that the latter places himself on a line of the ball at X, without causing the original striker No. 2 (red) to check to avoid a collision.

EXAMPLE IV.

Field Rule 16.— { Crossing.
Possession of ball.

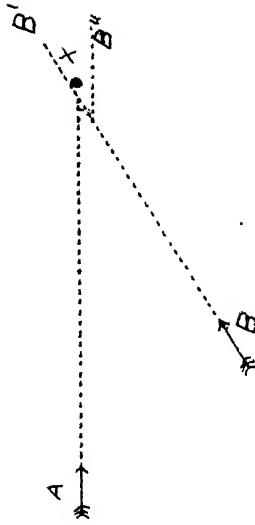

A hits the ball in from behind to X.

B rides to meet it, and C to take it on.

A collision is imminent between B and C at X.

B must be given way to, because he is on the line on which the ball travelled, even though coming in an opposite direction, whereas C would cross that line.

EXAMPLE V.
Field Rule 16.—Crossing.

A hits the ball to X.

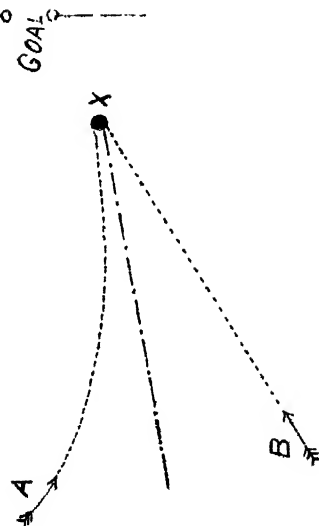

If B can unquestionably reach the ball at X, without causing A to check to avoid a collision, then B is entitled to possession and can take an off-side backhand at B'.

But if there is reasonable doubt, then it is B's duty to swerve towards B'' (the line of the ball), and take a near-side backhand, and if in taking, that backhand, or afterwards, his pony in the slightest degree crosses the line of the ball, a "cross" should be given against him.

EXAMPLE VI.

Rule 16.—{ Crossing.
Possession of ball.

16 (d) Riding at smallest angle.

The ball has been hit to X.

Neither A nor B hit it there.

Both start to ride to the ball with equal rights. A collision is probable at X. A must be given way to, as he has followed more closely the line on which the Ball has been travelling.

EXAMPLE VII.

Field Rule 16.—Crossing.

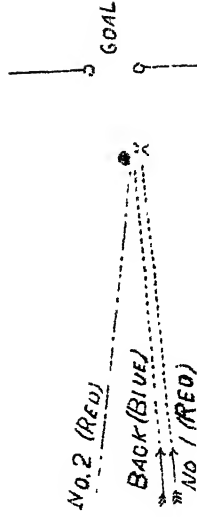

No. 2 (red), in possession of the ball, hits to X.
All three players ride for the ball, No. 1 (red) riding off the back (blue) all way and a collision between the three is imminent at X.

No. 2 (red) is entitled to possession.

A dangerous foul should be given against No. 1 (red) either if :—

(a)—No. 2 has to check to avoid collision with the back (blue), caused by the latter being forced into the position shown, by the riding off of No. 1 (red); or

(b)—Back (blue) has to check to avoid accident, from being shut in between No. 2 (red) and No. 1 (red).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR UMPIRES AND REFEREES.

These instructions and the rules for the regulation of the game, and tournaments shall be carefully read over by umpires and referees before each tournament.

1. (a) Umpires shall be provided with whistles by the Honorary Secretary of the tournament unless they prefer to use their own. The whistles must be of the kind which emit a strong blast such as policemen use.

(b) Umpires will use their whistles as required and shall stop the game whenever they see an infringement of the rules, without waiting for an appeal, by sounding a strong blast on the whistle (a feeble toot is quite useless) which can be heard all over the ground and by the timekeeper. The ball is dead the moment the whistle is sounded.

(c) If the other umpire disagrees with the decision of the umpire who sounded his whistle, the matter under dispute shall be referred to the referee, and if no referee has been appointed, to the tournament committee.

2. Where there are two umpires they shall take one side line and one back line each, but their responsibility inside the boundary shall be co-equal.

3. Umpires shall wear their coats and carry some spare balls either in their pockets or in a haversack.

4. Umpires must bear in mind that, if they do not order off the ground any dangerous or unmanageable pony, they more or less make themselves responsible for accidents. The same applies to players. If after due warning a player continues to ignore the warning, then he shall be ordered off the ground. Before either a pony or player is ordered off the ground both umpires must concur.

5. Whilst the ball is in play, both umpires must move about with the game and exercise unremitting vigilance, especially in the vicinity of the ball, where the probability of an infringement of the rules is not only most likely to occur but also is attended with the gravest consequences.

6. To carry out their duties umpires must be efficiently mounted. It is undesirable that umpires obstruct play but they must remember that they are free to go where they please.

7. When the ball goes out of play over a side line umpires shall give reasonable time for both sides to reassemble. If either side delay then the ball shall be thrown in (Field Rule 12.)

8. The referee, when one is appointed, and at least one of the members of the Tournament Committee must always closely watch the game so that they may be in a position to give their opinion about any matter referred to them.

9. Umpires are advised to meet goal judges a few minutes before a match commences in order to make sure that they understand their duties. vide rule 12 for the regulation of tournaments.

10. The special attention of Umpires is drawn to the following :—

(a) As crosses frequently occur in the meeting of the ball when hit out from the back line, it is advisable for one umpire to place himself behind the player who hits the ball out from behind. From here the umpire can see the exact line of the ball whether the player hits out to the side or across his own goal. The other umpire can watch the 30 yards line to see that the opponents do not cross this before the ball is hit out.

(b) When a player is pursuing an adversary with intent to hook his stick, the umpire should see that when he does so, he is on the same side as the ball or immediately behind. This particular breach of rules often occurs in a scrimmage in the vicinity of goal.

(c) When a player, with the intention of hitting a back-hander comes in at an angle, on the line of the ball, the umpire should see that he is entitled to possession, under Field Rule 16 as if he is not entitled to possession of the ball, and the player in possession of the ball has to check to avoid a collision, it is a "cross",—vide examples at end of Field Rules.

(d) In all doubtful cases of crossing the pace at which both players are moving must be carefully considered, as on this depends the question, whether the player entitled to possession has to check to avoid collision.

(e) The umpire should see that none of the attacking side are within 30 yards of the back line when the ball is hit off from behind.

11. It is the duty of the umpire to see that the rules are obeyed. If after awarding a penalty an umpire notices that either side are about to infringe the rules laid down for carrying out that penalty, the umpire will draw attention to the impending infringement and order the team or teams to observe the rules. If such an infringement is not noticed by the umpires until a claim is made by one of the sides, it will not absolve the team committing the infringement from having a penalty awarded.

12. In the event of an umpire wishing to confer with the other umpire or referee on any point he should blow his whistle to enable the timekeeper to deduct the period for which the ball is out of play. In doing so he must take care that neither side gain any advantage from his action.

STATION POLO.

1. In every station where polo is regularly played, the players shall elect a Committee from amongst the most experienced polo players, to be called the "Station Polo Committee."

2. It is the duty of this Committee to regulate all matters in the station connected with Polo, and to see that the station games are played in accordance with the rules. Ignorance of the rules by young players tends to a great deal of the unfair and dangerous riding, often seen in station games, which it is the duty of the Committee to stop.

3. The Committee will arrange for occasional "slow periods" for unbrokeu ponies and beginners. No pony, which is not thoroughly broken, and no player who is a bad horseman, or who does not know the rules of the game, should be allowed to play in a "fast game."

4. An umpire must be appointed for matches of any sort. But for ordinary station games, as it is generally impracticable to provide an umpire, any two members of the polo committee must interpret the rules and settle any disputes that may occur.

5. When a goal is scored in a station game sides change ends as laid down in the rules, but instead of returning to the centre of the ground to restart the game, the side which scored hits the ball out from their new back line.

6. Likewise when the ball is driven over the side lines it is brought into play by one of the players hitting it into the ground. In this connection a useful custom is to make the person who hit it out, hit it in, regardless of seniority. This deters, if it does not prevent, persons thoughtlessly hitting the ball out of play and tends to keep the ball in the centre of the ground.

7. The committee will see that no player plays any portion of a game without a polo helmet or lungi. But even this precaution is useless, unless players themselves see that their helmets are firmly secured under their chins with a strong strap, which will not break, or come off, in a fall.
